Douglas La Fave – Love is in the Air

This experimental set of prints contemplates how our experiences of urban atmospheres are shaped by circadian rhythms of light.

Douglas La Fave (DJ) is a self-inspired local artist who works in different mediums. He holds a Bachelor's degree from SUNY Cortland in Studio Arts. He has been painting and modeling works of art for over fifteen years. His creations range from hand-built clay sculptures and acrylic paintings, to tattoo drawing and logos. DJ, teaching painting classes to people of all ages.

Jesse Lepak- Natural Wood Burning Fish, Flies, and Feathers

Dr. Lepak is trained in fisheries science and tries to create artwork that captures his subjects accurately. He has been wood burning for over 10 years and has focused largely on fish and wildlife-related pieces. Small metal tips are heated and used to burn the wood (all-birch in this display) and when needed, acrylic paint provides some color.

Best of 2020: Gallery Night Year in Review

2020 is finally behind us and what a crazy year it was. So much change occurred and as a community we all had to adapt to what was happening around us. As we begin this new year let's take some time to look back on some of the better moments we had. This month's Gallery Night not only features new exhibits, we have put together a Gallery Night: Year in Review. A collection of pieces from each month of 2020. Let's reflect on some of the brighter moments of this last year through the lens of art!
