Sebastián Chavez, Daniela Rivero & Paloma Barhaugh-Bordas, AMALGAM/A latinx exhibition / exhibición de arte

En el marco del mes de la herencia latina en Tompkins County queremos resaltar el aporte de personas latinx en la educación superior en Estados Unidos. AMALGAM/A se refiere a la mezcla de materiales distintos para formar uno mas resistente. El trabajo de Daniela Rivero y Sebastián Chavez ambos estudiantes de Ithaca College, nos presentan trabajos que mezclan disímiles por medio del collage y el objeto encontrado, que utilizan para resaltar sus raíces, memorias e identidades vinculadas a elementos culturales de El Salvador, México y la experiencia latinx como jóvenes en el año 2020 acompañados por el trabajo de la Profesora de Arte en Ithaca College Paloma Barhaugh-Bordas. La exhibición estará abierta al público en el ventanal de la galería del Community School of Music and Arts y en línea en www.culturaithaca.com del 2 de Octubre al 2 de Noviembre, presentado en colaboración con Latino Civic Association of Tompkins County y ¡Cultura! Ithaca.

*In English: "As part of Tompkins County Latino Heritage Month, we want to highlight the contribution of Latinx people to higher education in the United States. AMALGAM/A refers to a mixture of different materials to form a stronger one. Daniela Rivero and Sebastián Chavez, both students at Ithaca College, present us with works that mix dissimilar ones through collage and found objects, which they use to highlight their roots, memories and identities linked to cultural elements of El Salvador, Mexico and the Latinx experience as young people in the year 2020. Their pieces are accompanied by the work of Paloma Barhaugh-Bordas, Assistant Professor of Art at Ithaca College. The exhibition will be on view in the window at the Community School of Music and Arts and online at www.culturaithaca.com from October 2 to November 23, presented in partnership with the Latino Civic Association of Tompkins County and ¡Cultura! ### Limerick Studio Printmakers | 20 Years of Change

Following a successful joint project honoring the tenth anniversary of both studios in 2009/10, Limerick Printmakers are collaborating once again with The Ink Shop on an ambitious print project. Each printmaker created an edition of 21 prints, with both studios receiving a full set of prints from each studio. The theme of '20 Years of Change' welcomes a wide set of interpretations and allows for diverse responses from participants. The project will feature up to 36 printmakers in total. All work will be exhibited together in both Ireland and the US in late 2020 and will become part of each studio's permanent archive. The Limerick prints can be seen by appointment in the Ink Shop Studio Gallery and in a virtual gallery.

Traditional In-Person Gallery Exhibit

Diana Ozolins and Sandra Goodman, "Textures in Stitch and Stroke,"

A two-person show of work will be at State of the Art this month. Ozolins works directly outdoors or from photos in the studio, using oil paint, brush and palette knife to recreate the feeling of being immersed in our beautiful landscapes in and around Ithaca. Goodman uses crochet as her artistic medium to express the vibrancy of the world and life, interpreted through pictorial and sculptural forms. Both artists present a riot of color to delight the senses. The show runs from October 1 – November 1, 2020 at State of the Art Gallery Hours: Thurs. & Fri., 12-6pm, Sat. & Sun., 12-5pm. State of the Art Gallery, 120 W Martin Luther King, Jr./State Street. Curbside parking and ADA accessibility. 607-277-1626 and www.soagithaca.org.

Coming in December the gallery will host an Online Juried Exhibition. Prizes will be awarded and the online show will be broadly promoted on social media and in on-line newspapers. Deadline for entries is October 15, 2020.

Please go to our website for more information and the Call for Entries: www.soagithaca.org.

Robin Tilling | Koi Series

Robin Tilling is a wife, mother, daughter, friend, textile artist, baker, knitter, and sometimes writer who finds labels daunting. In recent years, she discovered block printing on textiles and has explored the craft on both paper and fabric, creating tote bags to sell from the printed designs. This Koi series was inspired by a trip to New Orleans and graffiti found on the sidewalk - artists protesting missing architectural details by creating stenciled designs.
